Ambition Reexplains Business Model and Reports Results of Inquiry on Customer Loans

Name	Ambition Corporation (Securities Code: 3300)
Overview	With reports of an employee of an industry peer manipulating the deposit balance data received from customers, Ambition has been receiving inquiries regarding customer loans concerning the real estate investment support business models of Ambition and its group companies. Ambition is using this opportunity to reexplain its business models in addition to those of its group companies, as well as report the results of its internal inquiry on customer loans.
Survey result	The internal audit offices of Ambition and its group companies conducted an inquiry on loans for customers who concluded transaction contracts with Ambition and/or its group companies from time of company establishment to the end of August 2018, and confirmed that no similar practice of malfeasance exists.
Business model	Ambition and its group provide one-stop services to potential real estate owners. The properties provided by Ambition and its group are priced at an average of about 3.3 million yen for condominium units and an average of about 0.6 billion yen for whole apartments.
